

SINOPEC

ADDAX PETROLEUM OIL & GAS GABON INC.,

located in Port-Gentil, is currently looking for candidates for the below positions:

Instrumentation Operator (1)

Mission

- Perform and follow system of Permit To Work (PTW) in order to maintain transparent and auditable activities and procedures under safety rules.
- Understand, implement and ensure compliance with the company HSE policies, procedures standards and work practices to assure company HSE value, objectives, statutory and regulatory compliance obligations are met.
- Inspect & Maintain Programmable Logic Controller (PLC) system by understanding and applying the concept of PLC philosophy, hardware, software, communications, special control applications, computational capabilities and field specification and requirements which gives the flexibility, reliability and availability of the data and control system.
- Check instrument physically: packing leak on a valve, a damaged transmitter, or a damage membrane on a regulator.
- Apply methods, techniques and procedures used for the installation and operation of instrumentation equipment and systems considering their characteristics, conditions of usage and care, the type of manoeuvre to be executed, manufacturer's recommendations and regulations in force, with the purpose of incorporating best practices or replacing their operating parameters.

Profile

- Able and fit to work on site.
- Extensive leadership experience.
- Post high school graduation (Bac+2) in technical areas.
- Operations professional with more than 5 years' experience gathered in diverse cultural business environments.
- Deep knowledge of EP operations, including HSE, technical integrity, operations and maintenance management systems, assurance and risk management, well servicing.

Forward CVs to: recrutement@addaxpetroleum.com indicating the job title in the mail subject.

Applications can be submitted until December 7th, 2022 at midnight.

Mechanical Operator (2)

Mission

- Implement the field mechanical maintenance activities with respect to company's HSE policy, plans and procedures.
- Anticipate possible defects as far as possible, ensuring the availability of spare parts, supplies and tools for the works.
- Carry inventories with the team leader in order to meet the operational readiness requirements of equipment.
- Attend scheduled equipment shutdown and equipment start-up after preventive maintenance or after fault stop.

Profile

- Be familiar with field mechanical equipment techniques and performance to align the function with operation philosophy and procedures, ensure operability and safety of equipment operation.

- Able and fit to work on site.
- Post high school graduation (Bac+2) in mechanical area with more than 5 years' experience.
- High proficiency on integrity management and equipment availability management, good knowledge of volumetric and centrifugal pumps, Caterpillar engines, generator, pumps all type.
- Good reading of mechanical drawings.
- Knowledge of Microsoft Office Package.

Forward CVs to: recrutement@addaxpetroleum.com indicating the job title in the mail subject.

Applications can be submitted until December 7th, 2022 at midnight.

Electrical Operator (1)

Mission

- Perform and follow system of PTW (permit to work) in order to maintain transparent and auditable activities and procedures under safety rules.
- Provide Line Management with Technical & Administrative support on matters of SIMOPS.
- Perform the electrical maintenance of the equipment and ensure that all precautions in accordance with the work permit have been taken.
- Ensure the good behaviour (cleanliness) and presentation of the premises and equipment.
- Provide data and report with the state of the equipment, the electrical consignments with the production, the works in progress and to come.
- Follow and track the technical stocks, spare parts and value the stocks with electrical supervisor.
- Identify the causes of problems through root cause analysis and identify options to achieve the best solution. This includes identifying patterns or connections between situations that do not have an obvious relationship, as well as identifying key or fundamental issues in complex situations.

Profile

- Able and fit to work on site.
- Good presentational and written communications skills.
- Post high school graduation (Bac+2) in Electrical area with more than 5 years' experience.
- Knowledge, understanding, and the commitment to global standards, processes, and policies.
- Demonstrate good planning, team working skills and able to generate safe work permits and safework plans to the Maintenance Supervisor.

Forward CVs to: recrutement@addaxpetroleum.com indicating the job title in the mail subject.

Applications can be submitted until December 7th, 2022 at midnight.